

I consider telemarketing an invasion of my privacy and the Wisconsin "No Call" list is a consumer protection that protects my rights to privacy. The Wisconsin law represents the desires of Wisconsin residents... the protections provided under our state law should not be superceded or weakened, in any way, by federal legislation.